Special Expertise Addendum

Course or Allied Service	Brief Rationale	Criteria The criteria will be relevant, objective, verifiable and reasonable.
Continued from page 1		2. One year (2 semesters) of coaching intercollegiate forensics (paid or volunteer) within the last 5 years. In conjunction, the following judging experience is required.
		a. To be considered qualified to coach debate one must have judged a minimum of 20 rounds of academic debate at the college level (any combination of Parliamentary, Policy or NFA-LD will suffice). For verification purposes, a listing of tournaments may be requested.
		b. To be considered qualified to coach platform and limited preparation speaking events one must have judged a minimum of 8 rounds of those events at the college level (any combination of Informative, Persuasive, Speech to Entertain, Communication Analysis, Impromptu or Extemporaneous). For verification purposes, a listing of tournaments may be requested.
		c. To be considered qualified to coach interpretation events, one must have judged a minimum of 8 rounds of those events at the college level (any combination of Programed Oral Interpretation, Prose, Poetry, Drama, Duo or Interpreters Theater). For verification purposes, a listing of tournaments may be requested.
Online Expertise	To teach online, instructors must be able to demonstrate current knowledge of the theory and practice of online teaching.	In order to be considered for an online assignment an instructor must have either 1. taught a total of 6.0 online semester units for an accredited college or university; OR 2. passed a class or classes totaling at least 2.0 semester units on the pedagogy of teaching online at an accredited college or university; OR
		3. successfully completed SRJC's online teaching training; OR 4. accumulated at least 30 hours of certified training in teaching online from one or more comparable organizations.