

Duties of Executive Council Members

The Executive Council establishes the duties for Councilors.

Duties of Councilors:

1. Attend regular meetings, special meetings, and retreats of the Executive Council.
2. Provide consultation and representation for faculty members as requested.
3. Represent the All Faculty Association as a member in at least one Council standing committee or District-wide committee.
4. Maintain confidentiality on issues discussed in closed session, on designated confidential issues communicated by the Officers, and other issues reasonably assumed to be confidential by their nature.
5. Perform other particular one-time duties as assigned by the Officers or the Council.
6. Vote on AFA policies and Tentative Agreements.
7. Provide guidance on the prioritization of negotiation agenda items, and delegate the day-to-day research and development of proposals and counterproposals to the Negotiations Team.
8. Vote for AFA Officers and Negotiators.
9. Vote on any changes to the By-laws.
